

Teresa Vogl

Teresa Vogl studied German, Romance languages and literature and musicology in Vienna and Paris. She received singing, presentation and elocution lessons and works as a presenter and music journalist.

Since 2010, she has regularly created and presented the morning show „Pasticcio“ for ORF Radio Ö1 and presents live broadcasts from the ORF RadioKulturhaus.

Since 2016 Teresa Vogl has been working as editor and presenter in the TV culture department of the ORF, where she presents the culture program ‚matinee‘, the series of reports „Culture from Vogl’s Perspective“ and highlights of cultural life (Opera Ball, Salzburg Festival, Summer Night Concert of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra etc.). Off air she moderates various cultural events such as galas or award ceremonies and arranges concert introductions and moderations, among others for the Musikverein Vienna and the Vienna Konzerthaus.
