

Teresa Vogl

Teresa Vogl studied German, Romance languages and musicology in Vienna and Paris. She has taken lessons in singing, presenting and acting, and works as a presenter and actress.

She produces and presents the programme “Pasticcio” for ORF Radio Ö1. Since 2016, Teresa Vogl has been working as an editor and presenter in ORF’s TV culture department, where, alongside regular series such as ‘kulturMATINEE’, ‘Wechselspiele’ and ‘Kultur aus der Vogl-Perspektive’, she presents the highlights of cultural life, such as the Vienna Philharmonic’s New Year’s Concert and Summer Night Concert, broadcasts from the Bregenz and Salzburg Festivals, and the Vienna Opera Ball.

Off-air, she presents cultural events such as concerts, galas, award ceremonies and artist talks in Austria and Germany.

As an actress, she has appeared in Austrian TV productions, including the ‘Série noire’ series “Die doppelte Frau” and the popular crime series “Schnell ermittelt“. She also appears in musical theatre productions, such as “About Last Night“ in Grafenegg.

She is currently appearing as the compère, performing dance and acting scenes in the 1920s-style orchestral revue “BEL AMI”.
